

RUSSIA BLAMED BY GERMANY FOR INSTIGATING WAR

German Foreign Secretary
Tells Reichstag Of War
Aims

WISH FOR GERMAN PEOPLE AND ALLIES FREEDOM OF SEA

Overseas Possessions Corresponding to Greatness and Wealth

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Amsterdam, June 25.—Germany's war aims were briefly set forth; the idea that she desires to secure world domination through the war disclaimed, and the responsibility for the conflict primarily placed upon Russia by Dr. Richard von Kuehlmann, the German foreign secretary in a speech to the reichstag in Berlin yesterday. While declaring that what was desired for the German people and their allies was "a free, strong, independent existence" within the boundaries drawn by them "by history," the foreign secretary said Germany would have to decline to make any concessions by stating her position as to Belgium in a way which would bind her without similarly binding Germany's enemies.

Referring to the responsibility for the war, as he viewed it, Von Kuehlmann said:

"I do not believe any responsible man in Germany, not even the emperor or the members of the imperial government, ever for a moment believed they could win the domination of Europe by starting this war. The idea of world domination in Europe is utopian, as was proved by Napoleon."

After declaring that the revelations that had been made showed Russia as the power which planned and desired war, with France abetting her and England's attitude strengthening the Russian desire for conflict, Von Kuehlmann again declared that Germany had not entertained any belief that this war could lead even to the domination of Europe much less the world.

In introducing his statement of the German war aims, the foreign minister said:

"It is necessary to say quite simply, and in a way easy for all to understand what our positive desires are."

With reference to the peace question Dr. Von Kuehlmann quoted from Former Premier Aquino's speech of May 16 in which he said that the British government would not turn a deaf ear to a peace proposal if it was not couched in ambiguous terms.

"We likewise can make the same declaration," added the foreign secretary, "knowing it to be also our policy."

"Once the moment arrives—when I care not to prophesy—that the nations which are at present locked in battle will exchange peace views, must be certain degrees of mutual confidence in each other's honesty and chivalry."

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Washington, June 25.—Immediate absolute prohibition was vigorously opposed by the senate agricultural committee today by an array of witnesses including Chairman Hurley of the shipping board, Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor and Percy H. Johnson, vice President of the Chemical National Bank of New York, speaking for a committee of bankers.

Mr. Hurley declared the shipping board feared "taking beer from the workmen would interfere with the great ship building program and Mr. Gompers declared organized labor was overwhelmingly opposed to absolute prohibition this time. Mr. Johnson told the committee immediate prohibition would throw many banks into the hands of receivers and bankrupt thousands of firms. Secretary Daniels appeared as a champion of prohibition and cited his famous dry order in the navy to prove that it would not interfere with efficiency.

Postmaster General Burleson explained that he was voicing his personal views opposed the pending Jones prohibition amendment to the emergency agricultural appropriation bill and said he feared it would upset labor.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Washington, June 25.—Declaring the nation cannot afford to conduct experiments at this time, Chairman Hurley of the shipping board, today opposed absolute prohibition before the senate agricultural committee.

"We've got to put all the smash and drive we've got into this war," Mr. Hurley declared. "We've got to fight, fight and still fight with every muscle straining and put aside non-essential experimenting if we are to win victory from the Huns."

He said that in his opinion there would be more risk connected with prohibition at this time than in the conscription of labor, as taking of beer from workmen would be a practical interference with labor. He added:

"I don't want to take any chances." Mr. Hurley, answering many questions by prohibition advocates on the committee, said the chief labor difficulties in ship building had occurred in "dry territory." It was brought out that 125,265 men are employed at ship yards in prohibition states, and 209,157 in "wet" territory.

Percy H. Johnson, vice-president of the Chemical National Bank of New York, speaking for a committee of bankers from the principal cities, told the committee an absolute prohibition amendment forbidding the withdrawal of spirits from bond would result in a financial catastrophe, throwing many banks and thousands of firms into bankruptcy.

Postmaster General Burleson joined in expressing fear that prohibition at this time might interfere with prosecution of the war. He said he was not prepared to say whether it was necessary to conserve food, and suggested that the committee confer with the food administration.

Secretary Daniels appeared to advocate prohibition. He said his dry order in the navy had resulted in increasing efficiency and proved its value. "If you say we must have saloons outside the doors of the navy yards to increase efficiency of the workmen," he added, "you can say also it is necessary for the men in uniform to have liquor."

"Organized labor is overwhelming opposed to absolute prohibition and to bring up the question now is to throw the apple of discord among the people of the country," said Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor.

Mr. Hurley and other officials appeared. (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5.)

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Washington, June 25.—Freight rates on practically every railroad in the United States were 25 per cent higher today. The recent advance ordered by Director General McAdoo to meet increased operating costs resulting from the increase in wages to railroad workers became effective last midnight and became applicable to all freight billed for transit after that hour. Freight in transit when the new rates became effective will be carried at the old rate.

As most of the short line railroads not under government management have filed new schedules with the interstate commerce commission carrying rates conforming to those ordered by Director General McAdoo, the rate increase today practically was universal.

TONS OF BOMBS DROPPED BEHIND GERMAN LINES

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
London, June 25.—A series of British raiding operations by an "independent air force" in which important points behind the German lines were attacked and many tons of bombs dropped is reported in an official statement today. It reads:

Three raids were made during the early evening and a fourth after nightfall. Clouds prevented observations of the results obtained. Over six tons of bombs were dropped on this objective."

"On Monday, in spite of high winds and clouds, attacks were successfully carried out on factories and sidings at Saarbruecken, factories at Dillingen and the railway sidings at Metz-Sablonne."

"Our formations were attacked by enemy airplanes, one of which was sent down in flames and another driven down out of control. All of our machines returned."

MAY MEET SOON TO DISCUSS EXCHANGE

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Washington, June 25.—Germany has been asked through Spanish diplomatic channels to send representatives to Bern, Switzerland, to meet American representatives there on August 5 to discuss maintenance and exchange of prisoners. In response to a proposal from the state department the German government recently signified its agreement in principle to such a conference.

The United States has also asked Germany to permit a Swiss commission to visit German prison camps to determine that American prisoners may be classified as invalids and released for internment in Switzerland. Reciprocal privileges are promised.

NEED NOT PAY THE PRISONERS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Columbus, June 25.—Jail prisoners put to work on county highways need not be paid anything for their labor, but if allowance is made it must be determined by the county commissioners and paid out of the road funds. The sheriff, not the commissioners, has the right to appoint guards over the prisoners while at work. McGhee also held Clark county is contemplating using jail prisoners for road work.

RETREAT OF AUSTRIANS CONTINUES ACROSS THE SWOLLEN PIAVE RIVER

FLEEING HUNS THROW MAXIMS AND LIGHT CANNON IN THE WATER AS THEY DASH MADLY IN GREAT DISORDER FROM DEADLY FIRE OF ALLIED ARTILLERY

AUSTRIA HAD NOT CONTEMPLATED POSSIBILITY OF DEFEAT ACCORDING TO CAPTURED PRISONERS

Enemy Casualties are Placed at 200,000 and in Addition They Lost Large Stores of Munitions and Supplies and Immense Number of Guns and Cannon—Reported That Austro-Hungarian Foreign Minister Told German Command Revolution Would Follow in Dual Monarchy if the Austrian Attack Was Repulsed.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Washington, June 25.—An official dispatch from Rome today says the Austrians are in full retreat, and that papers taken from prisoners show that Austria had not contemplated the possibility of defeat and was promising her soldiers this offensive would be the last stroke to put Italy out of the war.

"In the region of Montello," the dispatch says, "the Italians have found the body of the aviator, Major Baracca, who failed to return during the first days of the operations in that region. A bullet was found in his temple. This leads to the belief that when the major saw that his disabled machine forced him to descend into the enemy's lines, he killed himself rather than be captured. The loss of Major Baracca is deeply felt in Italy as he was the leading aviator of the Italian army, having to his credit the destruction of about 50 enemy machines."

"Italian hydroplanes succeeded in setting fire to large Austrian ships steaming near the eastern Adriatic coast. The fire was started by bombs dropped from Italian machines."

"The king has awarded the gold medal for bravery to the leaders of the Polish legions fighting at our front."

A dispatch to the Italian embassy from Rome today confirmed the announcement yesterday that prisoners taken by the Italians in the fighting at the Piave numbered 45,000. This includes some 12,000 or 15,000 captured during the past week before the Austrian offensive was turned into a rout.

THREW GUNS AWAY

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Geneva, June 25.—The Austrian retreat across the Piave continues in the greatest disorder under the immediate fire of the allied artillery, according to news received here this morning. British gunners especially are doing heavy execution in this section.

Hundreds of the enemy, the report states, were drowned in the swollen river, into which the Austrians were throwing the Maxims and light cannon.

In the meantime the Austrians are rushing up new reserves to fill the breach between the Montello plateau and the Adriatic in order to avert a disaster.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Italian Army Headquarters, Monday, June 24.—General Badoglio, chief of staff to General Diaz, has been promoted by the king to the rank of an army commander as an expression of the king's satisfaction with the present operations. General Badoglio will remain in his present position.

AUSTRIAN ARMY CRUSHED

(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches.)
Austria's armies again are beyond the Piave and the river line once more bars the enemy from the Venetian plains. The crushed Austrians forces not only were pursued to the river, but the Italians at points have occupied strong bridgeheads on the eastern bank.

How thorough the Italian victory has been is not yet clear, as every hour brings reports of increasing Austrian losses. Many thousands of the invaders were killed in their attempt to regain the eastern bank of the river and the latest announcement from General Diaz places the number of prisoners alone at 40,000. One report places the Austrian casualties at 200,000 men. In addition the enemy lost large stores of munitions and supplies and many guns. Apparently the sudden torrent in the Piave which played havoc with Austrian communications fell as quickly as it arose and the river bed was dry when the Austrian retreat began. This enabled the enemy to get many of his troops across, otherwise his losses would have been measurably greater.

Vienna blames the weather and the high water in the river, retreat, and gives no credit to the stout Italian resistance which held the enemy on the western bank and was gradually forcing him back to the river. It says the order to withdraw was given last Thursday and leaves the impression that the retreat was carried out unobserved by the Italians.

It has been reported that Baron Burian, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, told the German command that grave events, possibly revolution, would follow in the dual monarchy if an Austrian attack, which Germany insisted upon, was repulsed. There have been no reports that the disorders and unrest within the Hapsburg empire have ceased. In fact, late news dispatches give scanty intelligence as to the state of affairs in Austria.

If the Austrian offensive was expected by the German command to relieve the situation on the west front, the German strategists have been disappointed. Austria probably will be unable to take up a new forward movement on the Piave line for a few days at least. In fact, the Piave front appears to be stronger now than at the beginning of the present battle. Operations on the mountain front are still at a standstill and if Emperor Charles still desires to push his offensive against Italy the next enemy attacks may come from this front unless the Italians continue their advance eastward from the Piave, of which, however, there are no indications at present.

Along the front from the North Sea to Switzerland the Allied armies are awaiting another blow from the Germans. Premier Lloyd George has told the British house of commons that another gigantic enemy effort is coming within a few days, possibly within a few hours. The Allies are ready to combat it.

British and French troops on the Flanders battlefield have carried out local operations successfully on the plateau north of Le Port, west of Soissons and along the Aisne, the French have improved their positions and captured 170 prisoners.

In a local effort in Belleau wood, northwest of Chateau-Thierry, American troops have completed the capture of the wood by clearing the Germans out of the northwestern portion. Some prisoners and five machine guns were taken. In Alsace several Americans are missing as a result of enemy raids. There is no confirmation of the Berlin official report that forty French and American prisoners were captured in the rail near Badonviller, on the Lunerville front.

IMMORAL WOMEN FOUND NEAR CAMP TO BE INTERNED

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., June 25.—Immoral women, apprehended by military and civil police and found diseased, will be interned in charge of the work here decided.

It is probable that the county infirmary, located about four miles north of camp, will be used. Great precautions are being taken by medical men in the army toward safe-guarding the health of the soldier. Eleven of the 13 women apprehended in Chillicothe last week are being held in custody.

Investigators of the state, who have been working in camp during the past week in search of bootleggers, are convinced that the situation here is now well in hand. The officers are having considerable trouble at Circleville, where several arrests have been made.

INVESTIGATION OF MYSTERIOUS FIRE IN VESSEL'S HOLD

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
An Atlantic Port, June 25.—Army authorities are making an inquiry into the cause of a fire which started early today in the hold of a transport lying at her pier and caused several thousand dollars damage before it was extinguished.

An army unit of the local fire department responded to the alarm and fought the flames, which threatened to destroy large quantities of airplane parts and other war necessities.

STATE ENDEAVORS ARRIVE IN CITY FOR CONVENTION

The state Christian Endeavor Society opened its annual session in this city today and will continue for four days, ending Friday evening.

The first session proper will begin this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the M. E. church, when a service of song will be conducted. Addresses of welcome will be delivered, after which the state officers will be introduced and the meeting will close with a musical entertainment.

This afternoon the annual meeting of the board of trustees of the Ohio Christian Endeavor Union met in the parlors of the Hotel Walden and transacted business pertinent to the organization.

Delegates began arriving early and it is predicted that over 1,000 will have reached the city tomorrow. All are met by committees and assigned quarters. The decorations displayed around the square greeted the delegates as they entered the city. The guide posts directing the delegates to the high school and to the First Methodist church are attractively decorated with the colors of C. E. red and white, and also with American flags.

The registration of the delegates began this morning under the direction of Miss Cora Eshelman and her efficient committee. The entertainment committee, under the direction of G. R. Hackney, found homes for the delegates, in which they are to be entertained during the convention.

Mr. Charles M. Alexander will conduct the song service this evening, assisted by Leonard Voke, pianist. Dr. Herbert Ure, pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Columbus, will have charge of the devotional service. Dr. C. H. Hazlett will give a welcome to the Endeavorers from the societies of Newark and Licking county. Dr. L. C. Sparks will welcome the delegates on behalf of the churches of the city and Mayor Atherton will give the address of welcome from the city.

Rev. J. J. Tisdall, pastor of the Wilson Avenue church at Columbus, will give the response.

William R. Sibley will give the state president's annual address. The evening will close with a musical entertainment under the direction of Mr. Alexander, assisted by Mr. Voke.

planner, and Albert Brown and G. W. Cook, soloists.

The program for Wednesday begins at 8:30 o'clock with services in the high school building.

Parade Thursday Afternoon.
The Thursday afternoon session of the state C. E. convention will be held at Moundbuilders park. The program will begin promptly at 2:30 o'clock at which time ex-Governor Willis will speak. Following this will be the athletic features, provided to be participated in by delegates from over the state. We hope to make of this event something unusual.

Promptly at 1:30 o'clock (not a minute later) the parade will start. It will be formed in West Main street in front of the high school building, heading east, reaching back to and up Sixth street. The Buckeye band will lead, followed by the autos conveying the speaker and officers of the convention, following these will be the foot-marchers to be followed by floats and everybody who will join in with their autos. Note the order and the committee urges the citizens of the county and city to join in this parade and help to make it worthy of us. Decorate your autos if you can, but join in if you cannot. We feel that we owe it to our visitors to show them our appreciation by making this demonstration worth while.

Captain W. C. Miller will be the marshal of the day.
SPECIAL ATTENTION—We have set 1:30 as the last minute the parade can start and reach the park in time for the program to begin promptly. It may be necessary to hurry the dinner-hour just a little in order to be in the parade and ready to start at 1:30. However, we want to thoroughly impress upon you the need of being in line to start at this time. The parade will go east to and around the square, and then direct to the park on West Main. Everybody come and be prompt.

THE COMMITTEE.

many and our allies a free, strong, independent existence within the boundaries drawn for us by history. We desire overseas possessions corresponding to our greatness and wealth, the freedom of the sea, carrying our trade to all parts of the world.

Dealing with the question of Poland, Dr. von Kuehlmann said that not only was the Polish question inherently a difficult one but the almost inseparable connection with it and the solution of the economic question exist between Austria-Hungary and Germany had so far prevented the attainment of a definite result.

"In Austria-Hungary," said von Kuehlmann, "that brilliant representative of her foreign policy, Count Czernin, retired because of internal political reasons. His successor, Baron Burian, is a well-tried diplomat, whose loyalty, friendship and devotion to the alliance were assured from the outset. The personnel and cordial collaboration which existed in the case of Count Czernin and which contributed to the final settlement and solution of all questions, also exists in the case of Baron Burian."

"It is also to be reckoned among Baron Burian's services that an interview between the two emperors occurred at main headquarters which history will record as momentous in shaping the relations between Germany and Austria-Hungary. Both the emperors in the presence of leading statesmen, assured each other solemnly that they would not only loyally abide by the existing alliance, but that they also intended to strengthen, widen, and deepen it in political, military, and economic directions. Pursuant to the expression of the will of these two august personages, responsible statesmen forthwith entered into corresponding negotiations. During his visit to Berlin, Baron Burian discussed the fundamental questions thoroughly in conferences with the chancellor, the exchange of views being carried on further in writing. They probably will be continued on the occasion of the chancellor's return visit to Vienna.

"With Bulgaria, too," continued the foreign secretary, "recent events, especially the peace negotiations, have facilitated the drawing closer of many personal and political ties. It is a matter of regret which the German public shares, that Premier Radslavoff, who has been a pillar of our alliance, recently resigned for internal political reasons. The explicit assurances of his successor and the exalted personality of the great statesman who wears the Bulgarian crown, are a guarantee to us that there will be no change in the policy hitherto followed."

Dr. von Kuehlmann again went over the question of the Dobrudja, which is the subject of negotiations between Turkey and Bulgaria, and added: "But there does not exist any conflict of interest between us and Turkey."

Dr. von Kuehlmann announced that within the next few days a conference would be held at Constantinople where the questions that had arisen between the quadruple alliance and "the Caucasian people" would "find a settlement."

RAILROAD NOT TO BE DISCONTINUED

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, June 25.—It was announced at the governor's office today that through intercession of Governor Cox with Director General of Railroads McAdoo, the recent order discontinuing service on the Cincinnati, Findlay & Fort Wayne railroad has been rescinded, and that the road will be kept in operation for the time being. The road runs from Findlay to Fort Wayne, Ind., and taps extensive beet-sugar territory. It is planned to hold a conference of shipmen and railroad officials soon to determine the advisability of continuing the service permanently.

MEN IN SERVICE WILL BE PERMITTED TO CAST BALLOTS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, June 25.—Regulations soon will be issued by the war and navy departments, Secretaries Baker and Daniels told callers today, providing that the Americans in military service both abroad and at home, from states which have enacted laws for absentee voting of those in the service may cast their ballots in the congressional elections next fall.

Casting of ballots by men in the service will be permitted, the heads of the army and navy stated, insofar as it does not interfere with military operations or training.

Strong objection to voting by soldiers overseas is said to have come from the general staff. President Wilson recently stated that he was most anxious that as many soldiers and sailors as possible be permitted to exercise their franchise.

PERSHING TELLS OF AMERICAN ADVANCE; SEVERAL MISSING

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, June 25.—Further American advances and the capture of five machine guns and other material in the region of Chateau-Chierry were reported today by General Pershing in his communique for yesterday. A German counter-attack at Torcy was repulsed with heavy loss. Several American soldiers are missing after a raid in Lorraine.

GERMAN ATTACKS AGAINST FRENCH WERE FAILURES

(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, June 24.—The Germans last night attacked the new French positions in the region of Leport, north of the Aisne, but were able to make no gains, says the official statement from the war office today. In surprise attacks in the Woevre and in Lorraine the French captured 20 prisoners.

NOT IN FAVOR

peared to support the statement made several days ago by Bainbridge Colby, member of the shipping board which led the committee to reopen hearings on the Jones prohibition amendment to the emergency agricultural bill. Mr. Colby told the committee that to take light wines and beer from the working man would reduce the output of American ship yards 25 per cent.

"If merely private interests were affected," Mr. Hurley said, "I have no hesitation in saying that I would welcome the prohibition experiment. Any temporary disorganization it might cause would have its compensation."

"It is not private business, but the country's business in a great war emergency, with which I am concerned, and I am unwilling in this crisis to stand sponsor for any experiment with the personal liberty of nearly half a million men in the ship yards and contributing industries, on whom we are relying to put through the biggest shipping program in the history of this or any other nation."

"If anyone tried to tell me that men worked better with the stimulus provided by liquor, I would simply cite him the cases of the ship yards in Oregon and Washington, where the employees, without such stimulant, are doing good work. If the argument were made that the workmen in a wet district turned out a steel ship in twenty-seven days, and that, because of this, it might be well to give light wines and beer to the workmen in Oregon and Washington, I would brush such an argument away as the offspring of folly."

"I would oppose an experiment of that kind in Oregon and Washington just as earnestly as I oppose the experiment that is proposed. Fortunately in the two states I have mentioned the sentiment of the workmen was prepared by a long election contest, in which the workmen had an opportunity to vote on the question."

"However they may have voted," he continued, "there was at least the quality of sportsmanship in abiding by the result. All the states are now taking what virtually amounts to a referendum on the constitutional amendment which is pending before the legislature. If the states act favorably upon it the workmen can have no feeling that there has been a lack of fair play."

"None of the ship yards are able to tolerate employees who overindulge in stimulants. Such men are eliminated automatically. The chief effect then will be to call a sudden halt upon a part of the daily routine of hard working and sober men."

"No nation engaged in this world war, either ally or enemy, has attempted such an experiment. The German government, monstrous in its cold, unfeeling and cruel exception, ignoring the individual except as a part of its military science, has not made the experiment; nor has England, fighting for its freedom, nor France, fighting for its very life."

"Nor can we, gentlemen, afford to experiment with a nation's destiny."

Mr. Johnson estimated that there are 250,000,000 gallons of distilled liquors, valued at $500,000,000, against which there is between $200,000,000 and $250,000,000 outstanding obligations. Bankers favor prohibition, he said, but they want to see it brought about without financial loss and probably fifteen months would be required to do that.

Mr. Furber said he expressed his personal views and not that speaking for the administration.

Buttermilk Cream creates beauty almost like magic. The most wonderful thing about it is the fact that whilst it turns the dulliest, most lifeless complexion to radiant beauty and makes red or rough hands or arms snowy white, yet there is not the slightest sign of its use after application. It actually vanishes from sight and the most heated atmosphere will not produce the least shininess or greasiness of the skin.

No matter whether you are troubled with a poor complexion, wrinkles, puffiness around the eyes, freckles, cross feet or lines around the mouth, ugly finger nails, or just a simple roughness of the face, hands or arms caused by wind or sun, you will find that any or all of these troubles will quickly disappear with the use of Howard's Buttermilk Cream.

To prove this to your complete satisfaction, get a small quantity today at T. J. Evans, with the understanding that they will freely return the purchase money to any dissatisfied customer.

IMPORTANT—To those who live in outlying sections, for a limited period only, the manufacturers, Howard Bros. Chemical Co., Buffalo, N. Y., will send the full size package direct, mail charges paid, on receipt of price, 50 cents, and dealer's name.

Beautiful actresses say, "A short massage with Buttermilk Cream at night before retiring is all that is necessary."

SHALL THEY GIVE UP EDUCATION.

As the boys in war times get along to be 19 to 20 years old, and part way through a college or "prep" school course, the tendency becomes strong for them to enlist for the war. "All the real fellows are going" said one of them the other day. "There will be no one left there but sick ones and those who don't dare go."

Yet the advice of the heads of our government seems to be that the boys should stick in school until they are of draft age. One hates to say a word to discourage any active and patriotic young man. Yet sometimes his wish to go is not so much patriotism, as a desire for adventure and a liking for being "in it."

The young man who drops a college course under age to enlist is not merely making the personal sacrifice of his career. He is taking from his country the advantage of having a trained man. We are going to need highly educated men after the war. One reason why Germany has fought so successfully is that she has so many educated men. The success of any army depends on its officers and most officers are men who have learned to think by persistent work in schools.

The sentiment of the college heads seems to be that the young men should at least stick at their studies until they reach draft age. Of course there may be exceptions. When a young man has a mechanical gift, and is naturally a good athlete and sport, it is fair to assume he would be a good aviator. He has so exceptional a talent to offer that he should not perhaps be discouraged.

But when it comes to the ordinary fellow who wants to break his education in two and go direct to the trenches, it seems doubtful policy, until the United States needs man power more than now.

SENATOR MILLER HONORED

Hon. J. Henry Miller of this city was signally honored by receiving a request to be one of the signers of the petition for the candidacy of Governor James M. Cox. The other signers were U. S. Senator Allee Pomerene, former governors Judson Harmon and James E. Campbell. It was no trifling honor for Senator Miller to be requested to sign the governor's paper in company with such distinguished Democratic leaders as Senator Pomerene and the two former governors.

While the government is forbidding unnecessary features of clothing, there should be no complaint if they were to forbid the men to wear coats in hot weather. The men will cling to the last, however, to their trousers pockets as they must have some place to put their hands.

The people who worry about the proposed increase in the income tax, should remember that most of it will be spent in this country for food and munitions for the soldiers, and that it will help make business good after the war.

Some one asks what has become of "Fluffy Ruffles." Last we saw of her she was out in a considerably soiled khaki suit hoeing her beans.

The regulation regarding women's shoes still permit those with large feet to continue as usual to select the most conspicuous styles.

The fact that General Foch says very little is good evidence that he is doing something.

WAR SAVINGS CAMPAIGN

Have you bought your War Savings Stamps?

If so, why not today, instead of some luxury you could do without?

The war promises to be longer and more costly than any of us dreamed of when it started, and more so than we expected six months ago. The cost of living will be very high. We have got to give up a lot of things that we are used to, but which we can get along without. Licking county's share is $4000 a day all year. It is not a child's job.

The War Savings Stamps not merely help the government support the army, but they provide us with a reserve against the pinch that is coming. A little interest will be accumulating from month to month, that will come in mighty handy one of these days. The people who can't deny themselves a few things to buy the stamps, will be the ones who bewail their hard luck most bitterly at some future time.

NUMBERS OF TROOPS.

(Philadelphia Record.) Repeated references to the allies being vastly outnumbered by Germans at various points of attack are only intelligible on the assumption that the reference is to the particular point attacked. The attacking party, selecting the spot where it will strike, can, of course, concentrate more men there than the defense could accumulate there in advance of the attack without denuding other parts of the line, toward which the attack would be directed the moment this denudation was observed.

Early in the spring campaign the highest English authorities assured us that, taking the whole western front, the two forces were as nearly as might be equal, or that the allies were in a moderate preponderance, say 10 per cent.

If we were told that the preponderance of the allies was much greater than this would be entirely credible. Commissioner Tardieu has assured us that since the beginning of the war France had raised 7,000,000 men, and had nearly 3,000,000 of them on the western front or within supporting distance thereof.

Last winter Sir Auckland Geddes made the following statement of men recruited up to that time in the British Empire. He was then calling for 450,000 more, and was evidently getting them, for in April a member of the government said that the new recruits outnumbered Sir Douglas Haig's casualties:

England 4,500,000
Scotland 620,000
Wales 250,000
Ireland 170,000
Dominions and Colonies 900,000

Native labor corps, carriers, etc. 1,000,000 This last item probably ought to be included, for large fractions of armies must consist of non-combatants, or what we call the army service corps. Putting these figures together with Tardieu's, the two countries have raised 14,000,000, a little more or a little less, and after liberal allowance for casualties and troops elsewhere employed, it is hard to see how they be less than five or six millions on the western front, to which we have probably added half a million, or nearly that, out of the aggregate of 3,000,000 men we have sent to France.

As England and France had an aggregate population before the war of 12,000,000 more than the German Empire, they must have been able to raise more men. The inferior estimate by any military authority of German fighting man-power in 1914 is 11,000,000 or 12,000,000. The additions from men reaching military age cannot have exceeded 2,000,000. The casualties the German government no longer disclose, but Karl Bleistrew's detailed estimate, $1,236,180.

10, 1917? Marshal Joffre unveiled it and it was accepted for the city by Mayor Mitchell. Former Premier Viviani, who headed the French commission to the United States, spoke briefly, as did Marquis de Chambrun, great grandson of Lafayette. The work cost $35,000, and was the gift of the Henry Marteau estate. The sculptor was Daniel Chester French. The monument consists of a panel of bronze about twelve feet long and ten feet high, against which is a figure of Lafayette in the uniform of a general in the Continental Army, with a negro holding his horse's head. The panel rests against a structure of granite of Italian Renaissance design.

published in a German paper, shows for three years a little more than 5,000,000 men killed and captured; this does not include wounded. From August 1 to the end of 1917, 369,000 dead and captured are computed. The losses since March 21 must have been enormous, for the methods of attack, depending upon the weight of number to break down resistance, invited terrible slaughter.

The allies must have a distinct superiority in numbers, taking the whole line into account, and every day decreases the number of Germans and adds to the number of Americans.

MARKETING BUTTER AND CHEESE BY PARCEL POST.

Creameries, dairies, and individual farms, in various instances which have been authenticated by the Bureau of Markets of the United States Department of Agriculture, have developed a successful system of parcel post marketing for butter and cheese. The conclusion reached by specialists of the Department as a result of a number of experiments is that that well-made butter, thoroughly chilled before shipping, may be marketed successfully by parcel post when packed in a suitable container and where extremely high temperatures are not encountered. Shipments during extremely hot weather frequently are unsatisfactory.

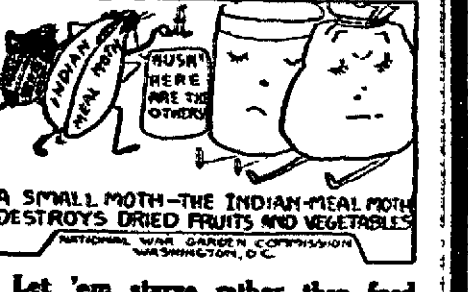

The Bureau of Markets received 454 shipments of butter, coming distances of from 187 to 534 miles, during various months of the year. Of these shipments 440, or 96.9 per cent, were received in satisfactory condition. The Bureau reshipped this butter to various state experiment stations and the shipments were not too great. In general, shipments from Washington were successful when forwarded as far north as Maine and as far west as Michigan and Indiana. Shipments into the South were successful shorter distances.

Farmers' Bulletin 920, "Marketing Butter and Cheese by Parcel Post," issued by the United States Department of Agriculture, gives detailed advice on methods which have been found advantageous. The bulletin urges that every care and precaution be exercised in making the butter and preparing it for shipment. The shipping container should properly protect the butter, and packages should be posted as near to mail time as possible in order to obtain delivery in the quickest practicable time.

The postal regulations provide that when butter is so packed or wrapped as to prevent damage to other mail it will be accepted for delivery either at the office of mailing or on any rural route starting therefrom. Butter will also be accepted for mailing to all offices to which, in the ordinary course of mail, it can be sent without spoiling when suitably wrapped or inclosed or when packed in crates, boxes or other suitable containers. It is well to stamp or write on packages of butter: "Butter—Keep away from heating apparatus."—U. S. Department of Agriculture.

CITIES HAVE NO POWER TO FIX PHONE RATES

Supreme Court Decides That Final Authority Rests With Utilities Commission.

That cities are without authority to fix telephone rates and that such power is lodged exclusively with the state utilities commission is indicated by the supreme court in its written opinion in the Cleveland telephone case, decided last Friday, in which the court allowed the Cleveland Telephone Company to put into effect increased rates approved by the commission.

The contention of the city was that as it is governed under home rule charter, it possessed authority to regulate telephone rates.
The appellate and common pleas courts coincided in this view, and they are reversed in this by the high court. The ruling of the supreme court is of vital interest in every city which has a home-rule charter.

Under this ruling, local telephone companies will be compelled to obtain the permission of the utilities commission before they can raise rates.

COUNCIL ACTS ON THE CONTEMPLATED TELEPHONE RAISE

Following a special meeting of the city council last night legal action will be taken against the Newark Telephone Company, in the matter of the proposed increase in telephone rates for the subscribers of the company.

In accordance with the resolution adopted unanimously by the council, City Solicitor Henry Ashcraft will file a petition for injunction in common pleas court late today or tomorrow, asking that the company be restrained from introducing the new rate.

The Newark Telephone Company, which operates the automatic system, recently filed its rates with the public utilities commission at Columbus asking for the privilege of increasing the rates, giving as their reason, the increased cost of operation. The hardship wrought in obtaining materials, and their increased cost, and the increased cost of labor.

Notices were sent out to the subscribers of the company the latter part of the week, the increases ranging from 25 cents to $1.00, the latter being the increased rate on business telephones.

The city council called a special meeting last night and all the members were present. A resolution was introduced by Councilman Newark, and supported by the council as a whole, authorizing City Solicitor Ashcraft to take the necessary legal action to prevent the Newark Telephone Company from raising the rates.

The council maintains that the Newark Telephone Company is operating under a franchise until 1921, or for three years yet, and that under ordinance 2191 of the city council of September 7, 1910, which fixed the rates of the Telephone Company, the company is now charging the maximum rate allowed under the franchise.

The city solicitor today is preparing his petition for an injunction to be filed in the common pleas court. It will be a protest against the proposed increase, as being extortionate, and an imposition on the subscribers.

TO EXTEND MOTOR SERVICE.
Because the motor truck route for eggs has proved so successful, plans are made to add more trucks to carry vegetables and fruit throughout the producing season. The truck company has agreed to supply as many trucks as are needed, and is glad to get the business, because it fits in with the hauling of merchandise from New York to Philadelphia and insures the trucks going back loaded to New York—U. S. Department of Agriculture.
